

Jeff Dial

Republican Candidate for Maricopa County Clerk of the Superior Court
Integrity. Honesty. Professionalism.

Short Bio (60 words)

Jeff Dial is the Republican candidate for Maricopa County Clerk of the Superior Court. He is a former Arizona State Senator and State Representative, an Army Reserve veteran, and a small-business owner with three decades of experience managing operations, budgets, payroll, contracts, and regulatory compliance. He is running on one standard: uphold the law and follow the Constitution, not a personal agenda.

Long Bio

Jeff Dial is the Republican candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court of Maricopa County. He is a former Arizona State Senator and State Representative, an Army Reserve veteran, and a small-business owner.

In the Legislature, Jeff served on education, public safety, commerce, and technology committees and chaired the State Debt and Budget Reform Committee. He sponsored the bill that made Arizona one of the first states to let drivers show proof of insurance on a phone instead of on paper, and the 2013 law creating the Extraordinary Educators license plate, which funds classroom projects for Arizona teachers. He kept an open door for every Arizonan, an approach he will bring to the Clerk's Office.

Since leaving the Legislature nearly ten years ago, Jeff has worked in business, helping run a multi-generation family company and later starting a small business with his wife. He has managed operations, budgets, payroll, contracts, and regulatory compliance, and has served on several Arizona boards of directors.

Jeff served in the U.S. Army Reserve and was honorably discharged. He is a former American Red Cross disaster-relief volunteer and holds a degree from Arizona State University. He and his wife are raising their young son in Maricopa County, and he is a Christian.

The Clerk's Office handles money and paperwork, but Jeff knows it is ultimately about people. That is why he believes integrity matters most: following the law, not a personal agenda.

Quick Facts

Office sought: Maricopa County Clerk of the Superior Court

Party: Republican

Home: Maricopa County

Family: Married; one son

Education: Arizona State University

Military: U.S. Army Reserve, honorably discharged

Prior office: Arizona State Senator and State Representative; Chair, State Debt and Budget Reform Committee

Business: Small-business owner; three decades managing operations, budgets, payroll, contracts, and regulatory compliance

Board service: Several Arizona boards of directors

Campaign tagline: Integrity. Honesty. Professionalism.

Campaign Priorities

Make the office easier to use, from anywhere. Push to expand online filing so residents can handle routine matters without taking a day off work, and cut the red tape that makes simple things hard.

Tell people what this office does before they need it. Most people never hear about the Clerk's Office until the worst week of their life.

Cleared for editorial use with credit "Jeff Dial for Clerk of the Superior Court."

Media contact: info@jeffdial.org · (480) 203-9616 · jeffdial.org

Paid for by Jeff Dial for Clerk of the Superior Court